

Group Volunteer Opportunities

- 1. Meal and Activity with Programs: Assist in organizing and participating in mealtimes and engaging activities with the children in our programs.
- 2. Sponsor an Outing Off-Campus: Provide support for exciting off-campus outings and activities for the children, offering them memorable experiences outside of our facilities.
- 3. Holiday & Themed Parties: Help organize and host holiday-themed parties for the children, creating joyful memories during special times of the year.
- 4. Activity and Childcare Assistants at Residential Care Meetings and Foster & Adopt Trainings: Support our caregivers and potential foster/adoptive families by assisting with childcare during important meetings and training sessions.
- 5. School Breaks: Organize and facilitate activities for the children during school breaks, ensuring they have constructive and enjoyable experiences outside of school.
- 6. Education & Career Guidance Events: Provide guidance and support to older children and teenagers as they navigate educational and career pathways, offering mentorship and advice. Office tours and round table discussions as well.
- 7. Donations & Drives: Contribute to donation drives or provide essential items directly to support the children in our care.
- 8. Occasional Campus Beautification Projects: Help maintain and beautify our facilities, ensuring a welcoming and comfortable environment for the children and families we serve.

Additionally, there is an opportunity to support Jonathan's Place by becoming a sponsor at our annual luncheon held every spring. This event is a crucial fundraiser for our organization and allows us to continue our mission of serving vulnerable children in our community.
