

Suri, age 14

Suri came to Jonathan's Place with self-inflicted cuts on her arms, suffering from depression and low self-esteem. During her time with us she's learned how to love herself, she's gained confidence and she's no longer cutting; with the help from Jonathan's Place counselors, therapists, and staff she now has the tools to manage her depression. At Jonathan's Place she's learned that she is valuable, irreplaceable and most of all she is loved.
